

School Events

Hokkaido Ashoro Senior High School holds various school events every year, like the school festival named “Kangaku-sai 「観岳祭」 (Kangaku means that we watch mountains.)” Students cooperate with their classmates, and through some competitions they deepen their ties and encourage each other.

In addition, we have some study training courses after school and during some holidays. Students make efforts to realise their dreams in the future.